Available resources through the Consolidated Housing and Community Development Programs include the Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) Entitlement Funds and the HOME Investment Partnerships Entitlement Funds. The citizen participation meetings will give the public the opportunity to review these programs previous year performance, identify housing and community development needs, and offer input regarding the use of program funds in the City of Newport News for the upcoming fiscal year 2021-2022. All interested persons are invited to attend one of the virtual public meetings using one of the previously noted dates and times for expressing their views regarding the Community Development programs.

Applications to request Community Development Block Grant funding for the 2021-2022 program year may be obtained online at either www.nnrha.com or www.nnva.gov/664/Publications; via email (athornwell@nnrha.org) or by telephone request to Ms. Alicia Thornwell, Grants Administrator, at 757-928-2647. Applications must be submitted on or before Friday, January 15, 2021 at 5:00 p.m.
