

David Staley Director of Community Development

David joined NNRHA in 2017 as Capital Projects Administrator and became a member of the leadership team in 2020 as Director of Community Development. David directs neighborhood revitalization, property rehabilitation assistance, housing development and homeownership assistance.

Raised in Newport News, David graduated from Warwick High School and Lynchburg College where he obtained a bachelor's degree in business administration. David's professional experience includes finance, real estate, construction and housing.

"It truly gives me a great sense of accomplishment to be involved in the transformation of affordable housing and the benefits it provides to the citizens of Newport News."

When he is not working, David enjoys spending time enjoying the outdoors with his wife, children, and grandchildren.
