

Tera Lockley Director of Housing

Tera joined NNRHA in 2024 as Director of Housing Operations. She has 32 years of experience in Housing and Management. Her most recent experience was leading the Property Management department of Hampton-Newport News Community Services Board and prior to that Virginia Community Development Corporation.

“Your thoughts become your words. Your words become your actions. Your actions become your habits. Your habits become your character and your character becomes your destiny.”

As Director of Housing Operations, she is responsible for management and administration of over 4500 units of assisted/affordable housing, Section 8, and Housing Choice Vouchers. The Department is also responsible for providing employment and homeownership opportunities to clients through the Family Investment Center/Family Self-Sufficiency Programs.

Tera obtained a Bachelor’s degree in Political Science from Hampton University. She also possesses various certifications from professional organizations in the housing industry.

When she is not working, Tera enjoys traveling and spending time with her family and friends.
